

Friday
October 20

10:00-11:00 a.m.

Managing in Chaos

Change is good! We know it and accept it as a premise but this phrase becomes empty and tiresome when all we know is change. In today's world, change comes at us like a "F-5" Tornado – hurtling objects at us so fiercely that we have to hide in the basement for protection and wait for the winds to subside. Navigate the storm with respect, authenticity, kindness, and a positive mental attitude! Audiences will leave with new tools to navigate organizational changes and make the most of the opportunities that appear.

All are welcome to attend.

This workshop is presented as part of the

Engineering & Public Works Track

Chip Lutz

President and Founder
Unconventional Leader, LLC

Lieutenant Commander Chip Lutz, USN (Ret), MEd, CSP, has 27 years of solid leadership experience. A retired Navy Officer, he has had two command tours and also served as the Director of Security for Naval District Washington, DC during September 11th 2001. In that capacity, he was responsible for the safety and security of 25,000 people on 6 different Naval Installations in the National Capital Region during one of our Nations most trying times.

A seasoned educator and trainer, he is currently adjunct faculty for two different universities and has taught over 20 different classes in leadership, management, human resource development, and organizational behavior. He is the author of 4 books, been published in Security Management Magazine, and has had numerous articles on teamwork and leadership published in Zig Zigar's Weekly Newsletter.

Tips, Trends & Tactics

The 119th League Annual Conference
October 18-20, 2017
Radisson Paper Valley
Appleton

