Ask the Attorneys

The League attorneys are available to help answer your general questions in an informal, Q & A session. Please bear in mind that questions regarding specific situations existing in your community are best left to the municipal attorney.

Claire Silverman

Legal Counsel

League of Wisconsin Municipalities

Daniel Olson

Assistant Legal Counsel

League of Wisconsin Municipalities

League attorneys, Claire Silverman and Daniel Olson, answer questions of a general nature for officials and employees of member municipalities, write legal articles for the League's magazine and amicus briefs in appellate cases involving issues of statewide concern to municipalities, organize an annual institute for municipal attorneys, create legal material for the League's web page, and educate local officials on a variety of topics pertaining to their duties.

Claire has been with the League since 1992. Daniel joined the League staff in 2001.
