

Cybersecurity Panel

Like all organizations dependent on modern technology, municipalities are vulnerable to cyber-attacks. This panel discusses a real-life incident from the Village of Ashwaubenon and features input from experts regarding protection and investigations of cyber-crime.

Douglas Buan

Director, Risk Management

Wind River Financial

Doug is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a BA in Behavioral Science & Law and a Certificate in Criminal Justice. Doug has worked in payment card risk, fraud investigations, and compliance for the past 18 years. For the past eight years, Doug has practiced and consulted on the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) – a credit card related data security framework and has become a “data security evangelist” of sorts. Doug has testified before a panel of the State of Wisconsin Assembly on cybersecurity risks to the payments industry. Doug is highly involved in industry professional associations and serves as General Counsel to the Int. Assoc. of Financial Crimes Investigators (IAFCI) and Co-Chair of IAFCI’s Cyber Fraud Industry Group.

Bill Nash

Chief Information Security Officer

State of Wisconsin, Dept. of Administration

Bill Nash is the Chief Information Security Officer for the State Of Wisconsin, Department of Administration.

Bill has 30 years of Information Technology (IT) experience in the areas of Application Development, Infrastructure support and Security. Bill produced the State of Wisconsin’s first enterprise security strategy and roadmap, which breaks down the state’s security strategy into projects based on business needs, risks, and opportunities. He partners and collaborates with the Wisconsin fusion centers and facilitates the Wisconsin Homeland Security Council’s Cyber Working Group.

Allison Swanson

Village Manager

Village of Ashwaubenon

Allison C. Swanson is the Village Manager for the Village of Ashwaubenon. Prior to joining the Village in 2011, she served as the City Attorney for the City of Green Bay and during her ten years with the City of Green Bay also held the positions as an Assistant City Attorney and Director and General Counsel for Economic Development. Allison worked in private practice for three years in St. Paul, Minnesota, representing municipal clients in defense litigation, until she relocated back to her hometown. Allison received a bachelor’s degree from the University of the Minnesota and a juris doctorate from Hamline School of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Lisa Woerpel

Vice President, Cash Management Solutions

River Valley Bank

As Vice President and Manager of River Valley Bank’s Cash Management Team, Lisa works to serve the needs of municipal and business clients throughout the company’s footprint. She has more than 30 years of banking experience, the last 12 of which have been spent assisting customers with their cash management needs specifically. Lisa is responsible for customer acquisition and implementation, product development and ensuring the bank’s cash management customers receive an Incredible Customer Experience with every interaction. Lisa is located at River Valley Bank’s Middleton office.

Tips, Trends & Tactics

The 119th League Annual Conference
October 18-20, 2017
Radisson Paper Valley
Appleton

